

I use XM radio to its fullest in everyday life and its instant traffic , weather and other programming are essential tools. I feel it unthinkable to allow the FCC to be bought by special interests trying to stop this programming.
David Rupert